Declaration and Consent

I hereby confirm that the information provided above is true and correct, and that the submitted entry is the original work of the learner.

I, _____ (full name of teacher/guardian), hereby consent to Santam processing the learner's personal information as provided in the 2026 Child Art Competition Entry Form, for the purposes outlined above. I understand that I may withdraw this consent at any time. By submitting the artwork, the learner and/or their guardian or representative ("the Applicant") agrees that ownership of the artwork shall vest in Santam. The Applicant further acknowledges and agrees that:

- The artwork may be sold by Santam to support educator development in arts and culture, or to fund art classes for children from previously disadvantaged communities across the country.
- Santam may authorise third parties to use the artwork in any manner it deems appropriate.
- The artwork may be published on Santam's website.
- Neither the Applicant nor any other party shall have any claim to the rights or title of the submitted artwork. Ownership of all submitted artwork shall remain solely with Santam.

The rules of entry

- 1 Any schoolgoing child in South Africa may participate in Santam's Child Art Competition.
- 2 Artwork MUST NOT be larger than A2 format (594 mm x 420 mm).
- 3 Colour or black-and-white drawings, etchings, paintings and silk-screens will be accepted.
- 4 NO sculptures, needlework or three-dimensional work will be accepted.
- 5 Entries may only be on paper or canvas and MAY NOT BE FOLDED, ROLLED UP OR MOUNTED.
- 6 Do not paste or write anything on the front of the artwork.
- 7 No artwork will be returned to parents, educators or entrants under any circumstances.
- 8 As selected works in the category 15 years and older may also be needed for examinations, we recommend that Grade 12 learners have their work photographed prior to entry.
- 9 The entry form must be fully completed to avoid disqualification.
- 10 An entry form must be pasted on the back of each entry to avoid disqualification.
- 11 This competition is for human-crafted works and NOT AI-generated pieces.

Share the events that were so great that you could do them over-and-over again. A memorable occasion.

Was it a trip to the beach, playing on the playground with your friends, your favourite vacation? Let your art reflect the excitement of what you would joyfully do again.

Your masterpiece could win your school R3000 and be featured in Santam's 2027 Child Art Calendar. Whether you choose to paint, draw, or use any creative medium, we encourage you to express yourself freely.

Entries close 30 June 2026.
Please see the general rules of entry in this leaflet.

ONE MORE TIME

Bring your most amazing and awesome memory to life with a burst of colour and imagination!

Was it a trip to the beach, playing on the playground with your friends, your favourite vacation? Let your art reflect the excitement of what you would joyfully do again.

Selection Process

1. Santam retains the right to exhibit, reproduce or use any work at its sole discretion.
2. Some selected works will be used in Santam's 2027 Child Art Calendar.
3. Each year Santam selects independent judges to adjudicate the work. Their decisions are final and no correspondence will be entered into.
4. All participating schools and art centres will be advised of the results of the adjudication.
5. Details of the winners and their artworks may be given to the media.

Prizes

The school and art centre that produce the most selected artworks per age category will receive R3000. All learners whose entries are selected will receive a medal and a certificate. Special awards will be given to schools or art centres whose learners participate for the first time and whose artworks are selected.

History

Santam's Child Art Project started in 1963 to give children an opportunity to express and present their thoughts and ideas creatively. In an active effort to fulfil the need for art education in disadvantaged communities, Santam offers free art classes to children from these communities.
